Miss Lehi and Miss Legacy Win Preliminary Awards at First Night of Competition

SALT LAKE CITY — June 18, 2014 — Miss Lehi and Miss Legacy received awards for the Lifestyle and Fitness and Talent portions of the competition during the first night of The Miss Utah 2014 Scholarship Pageant held at The Capitol Theater in Salt Lake.

Miss Lehi, Dania Rice, was the Preliminary Lifestyle and Fitness in Swimsuit winner. She will receive a $100 scholarship for her award. Dania is a student at Brigham Young University studying Communications, with an emphasis in Broadcast Journalism.

Miss Legacy, Chelsi Lukens, was the Preliminary Talent winner for her Pop Vocal performance to “And I am Telling You, I’m Not Going” from the movie “Dreamgirls.” She will receive a $100 scholarship for her award. Chelsi is a junior at Utah Valley University studying Literature and Music.

The pageant continues with the second night of preliminary competition on Thursday and the crowning of Miss Utah 2014 on Saturday at The Capitol Theater at 7 PM.
